MAN KILLED BY HIT-SKIP CAR; ANOTHER HURT

Careening Auto Strikes Pedestrian on Marion Road Near Marysville.

DRIVER FLEES SOUTHWARD

Cardington Man in City Hospital After Crash Near Waldo.

Special to The Star

A Union county man was killed and a Morrow county man was seriously injured in traffic accidents yesterday and today.

John Davis, 52, an inmate of the Union county home, was killed by a hit-skip motorist as he was walking along state route No. 4 near Marysville this morning. Virgil Cook, 42, of Cardington, was seriously injured in a two-car collision yesterday afternoon at Oborn Corners, four miles east of Waldo.

Hit-Skip Car Kills Union County Man

Special to The Star

MARYSVILLE, May 14—A hit-skip motorist struck and killed John Davis, 52, on the Marysville-Marion highway near the Union county home between 8:30 and 9 a. m. today.

Davis, who with his wife lived at the home, was walking toward Marysville when the automobile hit him. Authorities had found no trace of the death car and its driver at noon today.

Davis was still alive when he was found in a ditch bordering the highway by Clarence Robertson and John Blumenschein, operators of a state highway department truck who were driving out of Marysville toward Marion. They immediately called Sheriff William Raasch but Davis was dead when the sheriff reached the scene a few minutes later.

Fleeing car Seen

While there were no witnesses to the accident two men shortly afterward saw what they believe to be the hit and run car. Ernest Reed, a farmer living north of Marysville, told authorities he passed Davis walking along the road and before he (Reed) reached Marysville, about a mile distant, a careening car went around him traveling at a speed of about 60 miles an hour.

Marshal Clarence Brown said he was standing on the square in Marysville shortly after the estimated time of the accident and that a car, coming into town on the Marysville-Marion highway, skidded through a red traffic light and thundered out state route No. 31 toward Columbus. He said the car bore what appeared to be Indiana license plates and carried more than one occupant.

State highway patrolmen, including Patrolman J. M. Kratzer of the Marion sub-station, were checking on the accident today in an effort to obtain clues as to the identity of the death car. Kratzer was in Marysville this morning.

As Davis was walking on the left side of the road toward outbound traffic from Marysville the hit-skip car is believed to have careened across the road when it struck him.

Victim's Neck Broken

County Coroner James M. Foster said Davis' death was caused by a broken neck. No other bones in the body were broken and the only abrasion was on the rear part of one leg.

Davis and his wife, his only survivor, have lived at the Union county home since April of 1935. He was engaged in farming north of Marysville and near Magnetic Springs and Broadway many years and was well known in the county. He also lived in Marysville a short time.

The body may be viewed at the E. S. Faulkner funeral home. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Cardington Man in City Hospital

Virgil Cook, 42, of Cardington, suffered serious injuries in a broadside collision of two automobiles yesterday about 4:30 p. m. at Oborn Corners on the Fulton road, four miles east of Waldo.

Mr. Cook, who is at the City hospital, was hurt internally, and has a bad cut over his left eye and body bruises, Dr. A. A. Starner, attending physician said. At present he is in a semi-conscious state, probably due to a slight brain concussion. If a marked change for the better is not evident within 24 hours X-ray pictures will be taken, Dr. Starner said. His condition is regarded as serious, but not critical.

The accident occurred when Mr. Cook's car, traveling north, and a car driven by Gale Shoaf of Waldo, met broadside at a crossroads. Mr. Cook was thrown out of his car by the force of the impact. Neither car traveled more than six feet after the collision, according to Mr. Shoaf.

Mr. Shoaf said he believed Mr. Cook was holding a wooden board in front of the side window opening to keep out the wind, but that the accident occurred so suddenly he could not be certain.

The front of Mr. Shoaf's car was damaged and the side of the Cook car was damaged extensively. Mr. Cook was brought to the City hospital in the Groll & Banfill ambulance from Waldo.

Winners in Primary Gird For Fall Contest With Eye on Coughlin Victory

15 or 16 of Radio Priest's Congressional Choices Win Nomination.

TWO SEATS ASSURED

G. O. P. Regulars Take 47 of 52 Delegates to Convention in Cleveland.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 14—Apparent and certain winners in Ohio's primary oiled their election campaign machinery today as vote tabulators labored to wind up the slowest count in years.

Meanwhile four major victories were recorded or indicated. One was a distinct surprise. It was the ability of Fr. Charles E. Coughlin's National Union for Social Justice to oust two Ohio district congressmen, nominate 15 or 16 of its 32 candidates for congress, and assure itself of at least two seats by taking both nominations in two districts.

Regulars Take 47

Other major victories were:

1.—The Republican regulars' success in electing 47 of the state's important 52 delegates to the Cleveland convention against five pledged to the presidential candidacy of the fighting liberal, Sen. William E. Borah of Idaho. The victory included the entire delegate-at-large slate of eight elected by state-wide voting.

2.—President Roosevelt's lead of more than 16 to 1 over Col. Henry Breckinridge of New York in the legally impotent "popularity contest," the Democratic preferential presidential primary.

3.—Gov. Martin L. Davey's 3 to 2 lead over Rep. Stephen M. Young for the Democratic nomination for governor. Davey supporters had predicted defeating Young and Charles Hubbell of Cleveland, the third candidate, together by 5 to 1.

Sweep Complete

The Republican regulars' sweep of delegate-at-large candidates pledged to Ohio's "favorite son," Robert A. Taft of Cincinnati, was complete.

Daniel E. Morgan of Cleveland, highest man on the Borah slate, polled 30,000 fewer votes than the lowest Taft man, Frank M. Ransbottom of Zanesville.

Mid-day returns yesterday had a sixth district delegate candidate for Borah leading, but he lost his place late in the afternoon.

Borah supporters had entered only 28 district and seven delegates-at-large candidates, the regulars a complete slate. Thus 17 "favorite son" candidates went in unopposed. Borah supporters' victories were in the Akron industrial and three other districts.

FIRES CHIEF AID

KURT SCHUSCHNIGG

AUSTRIAN CHIEF OUSTS HIS AID

Prince Von Starhemberg Removed from Vice Chancellorship in Heimwehr Dispute.

REPERCUSSIONS LIKELY

Leader Fired by Schuschnigg, Warm Friend of Mussolini; Otto's Restoration Probable.

By The Associated Press

Little Austria, sometimes called "the head without a body," stole the international show from her more powerful neighbors today.

Kurt Schuschnigg, widowed chancellor, arose suddenly from the political backwash of the nation which the World war decimated. He ousted the volatile Fascist, Prince Ernst Rudiger von Starhemberg, from the vice-chancellorship.

If the possible repercussions were obscure, it was because the political tempest that boils eternally in Austria has always been difficult to follow.

But the cabinet shakeup brought an apparent showdown on Starhemberg's gay-uniformed private army, the heimwehr, which he has refused to disband, and possibly portended events of international scope.

Starhemberg is an out-and-out Fascist, close friend of Premier Mussolini of Italy, who just has won a war in Ethiopia which the League of Nations called "aggression."

Schuschnigg, though a disciple of the principle of an authoritative state, has more democratic ideas. As for the League of Nations, now involved in a fundamental dispute with Italy over annexed Ethiopia, there are many in Austria who cannot forget the helpful part played by Geneva in post-war Austrian reconstruction.

Better relations with Germany and possibly more favorable official reception of the movement for Hapsburg restoration were forecast in some quarters.

Of more immediate significance was Starhemberg's scheduled trip today to Rome.

There, Mussolini's Blackshirts were donning their uniforms for a special chamber session, called to ratify Il Duce's summary assumption of sovereignty over Ethiopia.

The League of Nations council was in adjournment, but jurists remained at Geneva, seeking ways to strengthen the power of the covenant for world peace.

Expeditionary detachments in Ethiopia set out from Addis Ababa, determined to penetrate every part of Italy's new "possession."

After removing von Starhemberg, Schuschnigg promised Austria's loyalty to Italy.

The scholarly Schuschnigg rushed an assurance to Premier Mussolini that Austria remained Italy's loyal ally.

Indications were that Schuschnigg's move may have improved the friendly relations already existing between the two nations.

Reports spread through high quarters that Il Duce was actually in no hurry to see von Starhemberg although the prince, wealthy head of the heimwehr (home guard) long had been regarded as a close friend of the Italian leader.

These reports were accentuated when von Starhemberg suddenly cancelled an airplane passage to Rome and his headquarters announced he would leave by train instead for the Italian capital tonight.

MANSFIELD YOUTH SENTENCED TO LIFE

Wilson Taken to Penitentiary at Columbus Following Court Action.

By The Associated Press

MANSFIELD, O., May 14—Judge C. H. Huston sentenced Charles Wilson, 23, to a life term in Ohio penitentiary today for the slaying of the girl he planned to marry, Jean Moorhead, 17.

Wilson was taken immediately to the prison in Columbus by Sheriff E. P. Long.

Before sentencing the young electrician, Judge Huston overruled a motion for a new trial.

Wilson shot Miss Moorhead to death last April 4 when he found her in an automobile with Haskell Smith, 23. Wilson had pleaded that the shooting was accidental.

GRANT MOUSER WINS BY 4,516 PLURALITY

Grant E. The tabulation gives Mouser 8,096 votes and Crow 3,580. J. Wesley Masters of near Edison polled 3,442 votes and Miles McLaughlin of Nevada 878.

The Crawford county vote, incomplete in yesterday's tabulation gave Mouser 730, Crow 383, Masters 206 and McLaughlin 102.

STORMS IN JERSEY PROVE FATAL TO TWO

By The Associated Press

NEWARK, N. J., May 14—Two men dead, six hurt and minor property damage in a dozen communities was the toll of a series of electrical storms which swept across New Jersey late yesterday.

Seeking shelter from the rain, Milford Lee, 21, and Frank Compos, 35, both of Irvington, had rowed their boat within jumping distance of the shore of Weequahic Park lake, Newark, when a bolt of lightning hit it. Lee was killed and Compos knocked unconscious.

Daniel Hill, 53, a watchman, was killed by a bolt which struck the shanty where he had taken refuge at a Jersey City WPA project.

INFLATION FOES POINT TO DEAD FARM MEASURE

BACKER PROMISES FIGHT

Says Debt Refinancing Issue Will Be Carried Into Political Campaign.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 14—Democratic leaders pointed today to the fate of the Frazier-Lemke farm refinancing bill, smashed down in the house, as a sure sign that "there will be no inflation."

In the defeated camp, Rep. Lemke, Republican of North Dakota, who had labored five years for the bill to print $3,000,000,000 in new money to refinance farm mortgages on easy terms, said that the issue would be carried into the front lines of the political wars. He also announced it would be re-introduced today in the hope legislators might "repent."

Smiling grimly, he received the condolences of his friends over the 235 to 142 beating handed the bill yesterday amid the whoops of its jubilant opponents.

"It wasn't so bad," Lemke said. "We'll get back here next January, and there won't be quite as many familiar faces as there are now—at least not from the farm states."

After nearly seven hours of the most violent battling witnessed on the floor this session, 173 Democrats and 62 Republicans roared their disapproval of the bill. Three Farmer-Laborites, 7 Progressives, 27 Republicans and 105 Democrats lined up behind it.

Labeled Inflationary

Opponents hammered it as inflationary: advocates said it would preserve the homes of the nation's farmers.

The measure would have authorized issuance of 1½ per cent bonds to refinance existing farm debts over 47 years at 1½ per cent interest. If the bonds did not sell, new currency up to $3,000,000,000 would have been printed.

The rules committee was forced to give up the legislation when a petition was signed by 218 members to take it to the floor.

In a desperate effort to rally more votes behind the bill, its sponsors offered one amendment after another in the house yesterday.

Fletcher Votes for Farm Bill

Brooks Fletcher of Marion, Eighth district congressman, was among the Democrats who voted for the Frazier-Lemke bill in the house yesterday. The Associated Press reported in a dispatch from Washington, D. C., today. Other Democratic members of the Ohio delegation who voted for the measure are Ashbrook, Crosser, Imhoff, Kniffin, Secrest, Sweeney and Young.

Voting against the bill were Felsinger, Kloeb and Thom, Democrats, and Cooper, Hess and Hollister, Republicans.

ANOTHER CHICAGO WOMAN SLUGGED

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, May 14—A light skinned Negro, believed by the police to be the same man who last Saturday bludgeoned Mrs. Lillian Guild, 59, to death in a Y. W. C. A. bedroom, today slugged a nurse at the St. Luke's hospital with a brick and escaped after terrorizing 80 other nurses.

The attack was made on Miss Louise Rickert, 29, of Detroit, in her fourth floor room at the hospital nurses' home, a few blocks south of the Guild murder scene—Michigan boulevard in downtown Chicago.

BANK HELD UP NEAR OBERLIN

Two Gunmen Seize Between $5,000 and $10,000 and Flee Toward Norwalk.

KERCHIEFS HIDE FACES

One Bandit Accosts Cashier While His Aid Herds Patrons Into Lobby.

By The Associated Press

OBERLIN, O., May 14—Two unmasked men robbed the First Wellington bank of between $5,000 and $10,000 today at nearby Wellington after herding five customers and three bank employes into the lobby of the institution.

The pair escaped in an automobile. They sped northwestward on route 18, toward Norwalk and Toledo.

Cashier K. O. Townsend, who estimated the loss, said the pair carried revolvers as they held handkerchiefs to their faces.

One approached the cashier while the other drove two women and three men patrons into the lobby, ordering them to sit there quietly. They forced Townsend, Miss Gertrude Dibble, 30, a teller, and Leon Jones, a bookkeeper, to follow the customers.

"I thought at first it was a joke," remarked Townsend. "They were that polite about the affair."

While one stood inside the entrance, his revolver trained on the group, his companion rifled two of three cash drawers. Another patron entered while the robbery was in progress. He was forced to join the persons in the lobby.

Instructing all to turn their backs to the entrance, the pair fled to their waiting automobile parked half a block away.

Townsend said the sheriffs of Lorain and Huron counties were notified immediately and deputies were assigned to patrol roads in the vicinity.

KANSAS TO COMPLY WITH SECURITY LAW

By The Associated Press

TOPEKA, Kan., May 14 — Gov. Alf M. Landon announced today he would call a special session of the Kansas legislature, probably in July, to initiate a proposed amendment to the state constitution to enable the state to comply with major phases of the federal social security program.

REPUBLICANS IN CAPITAL EYE BORAH RAP AT PARTY

Wonder What He Will Do at Convention as Result of Bitterness Over Loss in Ohio.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 14—Sen. Borah's latest attack on the Republican leadership had many in the capital guessing today about his intentions in the Cleveland convention next month and thereafter.

His statement, in comment on the reverse he suffered in his primary contest with the regular party organization in Ohio on Tuesday, said Negro voters had been told "the Republican party will pass the (Wagner-Costigan) anti-lynching bill."

The Idahoan has opposed this legislation on grounds of unconstitutionality. He said it "strikes at the very heart of state sovereignty."

He asserted that by advocating it, the men "who are in control of the party and who will likely be in control of the convention, will write its platform and name its candidate, have already demonstrated they care nothing about constitutional integrity or the protection of state's rights, that their talk on this subject is hypocritical and intellectually dishonest."

Although the last major Republican primary contest has passed, leaders seemed little nearer agreement today about the prospects for Cleveland than in months past.

Of the 560 delegates so far selected, 719 are unbound.

None of the possibilities for the presidential nomination has claimed a delegate strength approaching the necessary majority, 501 of the 1,001 total.

Supporters of Gov. Landon of Kansas have predicted his nomination on an early ballot, however. Against him some of the Borah leaders have been outspoken.

Forces favoring Col. Frank Knox of Illinois or Borah, among others, have conceded nothing to the claims of Landon men.

Knox, continuing his campaign with an address last night at Seattle, declared he stood "uncompromisingly for a budget to be balanced immediately."

With convention-time drawing nearer the Democrats are working to line up an all-Roosevelt demonstration. Six delegates to be named today in Vermont will bring the list to date to 640 of the 1,100 total.

Zeppelin Home With East-West Records Broken

Hindenburg Returns to Frankfort from Lakehurst in 49 Hours, 3 Minutes.

(Copyright, 1936, Associated Press)

FRANKFORT ON THE MAIN, Germany, May 14—Surpassing all records for both eastward and westward commercial crossings of the Atlantic, the giant German Zeppelin Hindenburg touched ground at 5:45 a. m., (11:45 p. m., Wednesday, Marion time) to end its first flight from America.

The official flying time for the voyage from Lakehurst, N. J., was given as 49 hours, three minutes, during which the great air cruiser covered 6,670 kilometers (4,168.75 miles).

Despite the early hour of its arrival, a great crowd gathered at the airdrome and a Nazi band played lively airs.

The same excitement attending the Zeppelin's arrival in Lakehurst after a flight of 61 hours, 53 minutes from Friedrichshafen welcomed the return of the massive lighter-than-air cruiser to its new base in even swifter record time.

Municipal officials arranged a city hall reception in honor of Dr. Hugo Eckener, president of the Zeppelin company, and Capt. Ernest Lehmann, commander of the Hindenburg.

The Zeppelin will leave for the United States Saturday, on the second of its projected series of commercial transAtlantic flights.

The Hindenburg, which lifted into the air from Lakehurst at 10:07½ p. m., E. S. T., Monday, followed approximately the same course it took over the northern steamship route on its westward flight which ended last Saturday at Lakehurst.

MARION-GREEN CAMP RELAYS SATURDAY

Y. M. C. A. To Sponsor Race Beginning at 10 A. M.; Entries Come In.

Y. M. C. A. track stars today were eagerly awaiting the starting gun which will mark the beginning of the second annual running of the Green Camp-to-Marion relay. The race, to get underway at 10 a. m., Saturday, will start from the public square at Green Camp and finish at the courthouse.

Three Y organizations have already filed their entries for the classic junior derby, and Donald Cram, director of the event, anticipates the entry of at least two more teams today or tomorrow. The President and Falcon Hi-Y clubs and the Four Square club have notified officials in charge of their entry in the race and it is expected that the Athenian and Tower Hi-Y clubs will enter teams, Cram said.

The finish of the six-mile relay will be about 10:30 o'clock, Cram estimates on the basis of the record time of 30.5 minutes, set last year. The Harding Hi-Y club copped first honors in the 1935 running of the relay, and the team is out to repeat this season. Rosters of the teams already entered in the race have not yet been announced. Twelve members compose each team, with each runner covering a half-mile.

The runners will receive protection from automobile traffic both on the trek from Green Camp to Marion and in the uptown district. Highway patrolmen, deputies from the sheriff's office and city police will cooperate in handling traffic along the route of the relay.

HOSTAGE GUARD WOUNDED

Another Shot in Fray as Convicts Speed Away from Brickyard Tower.

By The Associated Press

McALESTER, Okla., May 14—Five convicts fleeing from McAlester prison with two wounded guards abducted William Dooks of near Pittsburgh early today after forcing Mrs. Dooks to prepare breakfast for them, Undersheriff W. O. Merrill reported.

The five, Merrill said, were those who killed A. D. Powell, penitentiary brickyard foreman, and escaped in a guard's automobile during a break from the prison yesterday, in which 24 convicts took part. Three others are at large.

Tells Of Abduction

Merrill said the news of the abduction of the farmer was brought to McAlester by Mike Isabel, a merchant at Pittsburgh, who had talked to Mrs. Dooks.

Fifteen prison guards searched through the hills near Antlers for two of the convicts reported seen there at 2:30 a. m. Warden Roy Kenny said.

Another posse of prison guards and officers searched the brush around Stewart for one or more felons reported sighted there.

From one of the recaptured prisoners, retaken after the knife-flashing break from the prison brickyard, the warden learned that one of two hostage guards, Tuck Cope, was wounded.

The other captive guard was Victor Conn.

Powell was shot through the head and tossed out of the automobile as the convicts fled.

Bloodhounds Used

Bloodhounds were sent to Antlers to take up the trail of the two fugitives.

Warden Kenny described them as "a hard bunch, among the toughest we had here." Another hostage, W. W. Gossett, was wounded in an exchange of shots as the breakers sped away from the brickyard towers.

Their plot well laid, the two dozen desperate men—isolated from more than 5,000 others because they were "tougher,"—chose the noon hour yesterday to come out with the knives and crude dirks they had made. They seized the four guards while they were at lunch.

Tower guards tossed down rifles and pistols in answer to the pleading of one of the shields—who spoke with a knife at his throat and an escaping convict on each side.

Ordered To Open Gates

The tower guards were told to open the gates. This done, the felons dashed through and swarmed into a passenger car and the prison truck. A few attempted to escape on foot.

Guards patrolling the fence opened fire on the convicts, shooting down several.

They also turned their guns on the other convicts in the brickyard, and several of these were among those wounded.

Six of those who dashed outside the prison walls were captured a short distance away.

STEEL UNION DRIVE FAVORS LEWIS SETUP

Delegates Vote 53 to 31 for Industrial Plan as Against Craft Program.

By The Associated Press

CANONSBURG, Pa., May 14—Steel workers returned to plants in centers of the industry today for an industrial unionism campaign to bring all employes into the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel & Tin Workers.

From the big union's convention the delegates took a mandate to drive toward organization of steel labor along lines of the one big union plan advocated by John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America.

By a vote of 53 to 31 the delegates chose that type of unionization yesterday. The Lewis plan was opposed by William Green, American Federation of Labor president who asked the Amalgamated to campaign for craft unionization.

The Amalgamated's action after three weeks of convention debate did not indicate acceptance or rejection of a $500,000 offer by the Lewis committee to finance an industrial union drive in the steel industry.

White-haired William Tighe, longtime president of the steel union, said "under no conditions will we waive our rights."

Daily Pattern for Home Use

BY ANNE ADAMS

WISE MATRONS WILL MAKE THEIR OWN SLIMMING FROCKS FOR WARM DAYS

A tall story and a slim one, is told by Anne Adams in this dainty summer frock of becoming lines. You'll be delighted with this cool, all-occasion styles and the ease with which it can be made, for the simple pattern is so easy to follow that it takes but a little while to cut and stitch. Choose a few yards of cotton or tub silk—either printed or plain. The cape sleeves are on the popular raglan style which give smooth shoulders and detract from the hipline. You may puff the sleeves, if you wish. The half-way sash and tucks assure you a smoothly fitted waistline, and have you noticed the U-shaped neckline?—novel, cool and flattering, we think.

Pattern 4013 is available in sizes 16, 18, 20, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 3¾ yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number.

BE SURE TO STATE SIZE

Order our New Anne Adams Pattern Book and learn how easily you can make a smart summer wardrobe that's just your style! The latest frocks, suits, blouses; beach and vacation clothes; bridal outfits. Lovely clothes for children too. Smart styles for stouts. And a full picture story of summer fabrics and accessories. Book 15 cents, pattern 15 cents. POLICE RELEASE RUNAWAY YOUTH

No Fare Home Provided for Wanderlust Addict.

Described by Cleveland authorities as, "a habitual runaway," William Snyder, 16-year-old junior high school pupil from the lake city, was released by police here yesterday to find his own way back home. Funds were not available from the youth's parents or from authorities in Cleveland to cover his return home.

The youth arrived here Tuesday night on a freight train and appealed to highway patrolmen for aid to return. City police took charge of him while the patrolmen conducted a radio check-up to locate his parents. Reports from Cleveland authorities revealed that he evidently gets a touch of wanderlust often and that funds could not be furnished for his return. Unable to assist the youth on the return trip to Cleveland, local authorities released him yesterday afternoon.

"THE ADMIRAL'S JUST DISCOVERED THEY STAY CRISP!"

You are expected to be skeptical. It's hard to believe that a wheat cereal has been discovered that actually retains its crisp crunchiness in milk or cream!

You'll have to try Kellogg's Wheat Krispies. The Kellogg kitchens have found a way to blend rice with whole wheat. The result is a marvelous new cereal. Delicious with milk or cream. Nourishing and easy to digest. Buy a package of Wheat Krispies from your grocer. Enjoy a bowlful for breakfast tomorrow. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

ON THE POLITICAL FRONT

James W. Wadsworth

By The Associated Press

Rep. James W. Wadsworth of New York is laughing at the rumor he will be awarded the vice presidential nomination by the Republicans is Gov. Alfred Landon of Kansas becomes the party's presidential candidate.

But the rumor persists. Wadsworth won the surprised approval of his Republican comrades when he returned to the house in 1932 at a time when other Republicans heads were falling thick and fast. He had dropped from the senate in 1926, losing his seat to Robert Wagner, Democrat.

But he came back to capitol hill to open fire on Roosevelt in 1933. He has touched off volley after volley at NRA, AAA and Roosevelt fiscal policies.

His role behind the scenes at the Republican convention this year will, no doubt, be important, and he is expected to contribute energetic aid to both his party and to the American Liberty league, which he helped to form.

ZIONCHECK AND BRIDE LEAVE PUERTO RICO

Off for Virgin Islands After Witnessing Disorders Among Students on Isle.

By The Associated Press

SAN JUAN PUERTO RICO, May 14—Rep. Marion Zioncheck and his bride flew off to the Virgin Islands today while Puerto Rican national guardsmen rallied against student disorders such as troubled the honeymooning congressman's visit.

After watching students striking and demonstrating for independence, and calling for naval and marine protection, the Washington representative concluded his brief but eventful stay here late yesterday, leaving with Mrs. Zioncheck for St. Thomas.

Forsaking the automobile in which he had become involved in collisions with a truck and a gate, the congressman and his young wife departed in a marine plane.

Gov. Blanton Winship issued a proclamation assuring order and safety for all schools and urging parents to accompany their children to classes "to be satisfied and convinced that the assurances offered them are real."

The national guard was ordered, with police, to watch all schools after Nationalist students called strikes and tossed stones Tuesday night and yesterday in support of their campaign for independence from the United States.

Capt. Raymon Martinez, chief of the San Juan police, resigned amid complaints by many citizens of the absence of vigorous police measures against the school disorders.

He was replaced by Police Captain Rafael B. Diaz, who came from Rio Piedras to assume the San Juan police command.

The fact is, we don't advertise specific miles-per-gallon figures because you simply can't safely set a figure that could be right for all drivers under all conditions.

Your Health

BY DR. R. G. LEFFLAND

Growing Cells.

I RECEIVED a very interesting letter from a reader. This is one of the many letters I receive from readers who are interested in the subject of health. I am glad to receive them and to answer questions. Sometimes I wish I had more time to write personal letters to all who write me, but I am sure that my readers understand that I am very busy and that I do the best I can.

This letter is as follows:

Dear Doctor: I am writing for information concerning the growth of cells. During my childhood I had what I thought was a tumor on the abdominal muscles. It was about the size of a hen's egg. Now I have a similar lump on the left side of my neck. I have had it for a number of years and it seems to be growing larger. I am very much worried and afraid it is cancer. Please advise me what to do."

Answers to Health Queries.

M.A.B. Q—What would cause the lips and inside of the mouth to be very red? This condition is accompanied by itching of the skin and digestive upset. I have been eating rather freely of rich foods and nuts. Would this have any bearing on my condition?

A—Yes, your diet is probably at fault. Restrict the rich, fatty foods and make sure that your colon is clear. Overcome the acidity. For further particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

ROOSEVELT LETTERS KEPT FROM UTILITIES

Court Bars Use of His Notes to Ickes on PWA as Evidence.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 14—Chief Justice Alfred A. Wheat ruled yesterday that confidential correspondence between President Roosevelt and Secretary Ickes could not be introduced as evidence in the District of Columbia supreme court.

He upheld Jerome Frank, PWA attorney, who refused to produce the letters from the government files in response to a subpena by Dean Acheson, counsel for private utility companies.

Acheson contended that the letters would disclose a scheme of two officials to regulate local power rates without due authority.

"I am surprised that there should be so much controversy over this point," Chief Justice Wheat said. "This is not a question of the personality of the President; it is a question of the President's office itself. I can see no conceivable reason why communications between the President and his cabinet members should be opened to public discussion."

Chief Justice Wheat made the ruling after more than an hour of debate between Frank and Newton D. Baker, joint counsel for the utility companies. Baker cited Chief Justice John Marshall, the trial of Aaron Burr and ancient English law in his attempt to bring the letters before the court.

"I am authorized by the President to say that he considers this document privileged and that it would be prejudicial to the public interest if it is produced in court," Frank said.

BE FRANK! ARE YOU EASILY EXCITED?

There are two general types of people. One is the calm, stoic type that never gets excited very much about anything. Then, there is the sensitive type that is easily upset or excited, and suffers from high nerve tension, which is just another name for nerve pains such as headache and neuralgia.

If you are the latter type—if an unusually busy day, or worry, or emotion causes a nervous headache, you will find Capudine just made to suit your needs. Two teaspoonfuls of Capudine in a little water will quickly soothe the tense nerves, relieve the headache, and bring welcome relaxation. Capudine is gentle and contains no narcotics. Try it today. If you don't prefer it to everything else, your money will be cheerfully refunded. 60c, 30c, 10c sizes. —(Adv.)

YOU CAN DO BETTER AT MAY'S LEADING JEWELERS

Improvement Began When She Started Taking Vendol

Prominent matron had nervous indigestion, gas in stomach was bad, had acid risings and cramps. Is now free of constipation and dizziness and stomach feels fine.

"Before I started taking Vendol, I suffered from stomach disorders that seemed to affect my whole system, but my improvement began with the first bottle and now I'm feeling better than I have in a long time," said Mrs. Anna M. Raines of 1206 Parsons Ave., Columbus, Ohio.

"I could scarcely eat anything without feeling all bloated up with gas which pressed against my heart causing shortness of breath and pains. I would rift up a hot, sour liquid and it felt like there was a lump in my throat which I couldn't get rid of. I was never free of constipation and had to take purgatives or oils all the time. Nothing would correct this condition it seemed.

"Reading about Vendol and seeing what people all around here were taking it and telling how it had brought relief, I decided to try it, so got some and also a box of the little Vendol laxative tablets, and I only wish I had known about this wonderful midicine long ago. It would have saved me lots of discomfort.

"My bowels act regularly now, my nerves have calmed down and I eat hearty meals but no longer have the gas, acid risings or heavy, uncomfortable feeling, and the shortness of breath has been completely relieved. I just feel fine and hope everyone who reads this will give Vendol a trial."

Begin now taking Vendol and you will soon be feeling like a different person also, just as the above named lady did.

The Borah Vote.

Sen. Borah and his followers in the Republican party may go to Pittsburgh in June and the defeat of the reactionary forces for a decisive battle, even though a minor one.

The Borah vote in a few state may be classified as the extreme Old Guard Republican personal support for the candidate. The more vital organization an effort to enlarge the New Republican organization.

The total absence of organization by the Borah interest in the state and county where he has asked for support represents for the Progressive party a measure of sympathy with Sen. Borah's general attitude toward current political issues. His show of strength, though not sufficient to make him a strong candidate, cannot be dismissed lightly.

Sen. Borah, to use an overworked word, is a symbol. In the Republican party and in the middle west, where he has a personal following of impressive proportions, he is a spokesman for a more liberal viewpoint than that employed by many well established leaders. The senator is entitled by reason of the wide range of his supporters to a voice in the framing of the party platform. His presidential candidacy, now apparently hopeless as far as winning the nomination is concerned, can had the good influence of keeping Republicans to true faith important battle.

Froth and Fury.

Perhaps there is really something serious behind what appears to be evidence of cynical [illegible] being upset by announcement of Pulitzer prize awards.

The late Joseph Pulitzer decreed that such prizes should be given, so the committee follows his wishes. Rightly or wrongly, then, the prizes have come to be regarded as a mark of distinction, a guerdon keenly desired by many writing craftsmen. Perhaps, then, the prizes have come to be so important that critics, zealous about maintaining the honor of their profession, are inked to think the awards may go to unworthy members of their craft.

In accepting this year's prize for drama, Robert Sherwood said something which will shoot more subtlety into the froth and fury that always arises after announcement of the awards. He could not have accepted, he said, if the committee had not removed the rule which barred previous winners from competition since the award would mean little if other worthy dramatists were not eligible. What is more, he would like to see responsibility for making the choice placed with the Drama Critics Circle instead of the present committee.

What's a committee to do in such circumstances? Almost without exception, in recent years, critics have arisen to challenge the judgment if not the sanity of the prize jury and to intimate that they, and their fellow critics, could have done a much better job of choosing.

Yet if the job is turned over to the Drama Critics Circle and to comparable groups for the other awards, what is to prevent a new coterie of critics from arising to plague the new judges? Or hadn't they thought of that?

Liberty Was Their Trouble.

Foreign news reveals what a grave matter the war in Ethiopia was and is, particularly the Italian victory.

For instance, handsome Anthony Eden and other rising and falling statesmen have been embarrassed acutely by the failure of their peculiar version of collective security. Some heads may fall.

The League of Nations at Geneva is in a dither over the latest and greatest threat to its particular existence as the instrument of collective security. Geneva may become a deserted city.

Germany having seen Italy defy the world without disaster, may follow the example Great Britain has awakened with a start to a new day and a new order of things in Europe. Foreign policies are being made over by the dozen.

In fact, wherever one looks he finds complications caused by the late African trouble. Experts are working day and night to analyze clearly what should be expected. There's no time for anything else.

Relatively no thought is being given to Utopia any more. One might think the war had been fought somewhere else. Apparently, the Ethiopians are about to slip back into the obscurity from which they emerged. They have had their day in the sun.

Before they disappear, a word should be said about untrained and unequipped men who faced one of the best equipped armies [illegible]

Sen Borah's bid for leadership of the Republican party met its Waterloo in Ohio but the defeat is not without honor for a gallant battle even though a losing one

The Borah vote in this state may be classified in two divisions One part represented personal support for the candidate The other part represented an effort to revamp the Ohio Republican organization

The total number of votes polled by the Idaho liberal in this state and others where he has asked for support represents for the Republican party a measure of sympathy with Sen Borah's general attitude toward current political issues His show of strength though not sufficient to make him a strong candidate cannot be dismissed lightly

Sen Borah to use an overworked word is a symbol In the Republican party and in the middle west where he has a personal following of impressive proportions he is a spokesman for a more liberal viewpoint than that employed by many well established leaders The senator is entitled by reason of the wide range of his supporters to a voice in the framing of the party platform His presidential candidacy now apparently hopeless as far as winning the nomination is concerned has had the good influence of keying Republicans to this fall's important battle

Froth and Fury.

Perhaps there is really something serious behind what appears to be evidence of critical egos being upset by announcement of Pulitzer prize awards

The late Joseph Pulitzer decreed that such prizes should be given so the committee follows his wishes Rightly or wrongly then the prizes have come to be regarded as a mark of distinction a guerdon keenly desired by many writing craftsmen Perhaps, then, the prizes have come to be so important that critics zealous about maintaining the honor of their profession are irked to think the awards may go to unworthy members of their craft

In accepting this year's prize for drama Robert Sherwood said something which will shoot more bubbles into the froth and fury that always arise after announcement of the awards He could not have accepted he said if the committee had not removed the rule which barred previous winners from competition since the award would mean little if other worthy dramatists were not eligible What is more he would like to see responsibility for making the choice placed with the Drama Critics Circle in stead of the present committee

What's a committee to do in such circumstances? Almost without exception in recent years critics have arisen to challenge the judgment if not the sanity of the prize jury and to intimate that they and their fellow critics could have done a much better job of choosing

Yet if the job is turned over to the Drama Critics Circle and to comparable groups for the other awards what is to prevent a new coterie of critics from arising to plague the new judges? Or hadn't they thought of that?

Liberty Was Their Trouble.

Foreign news reveals what a grave matter the war in Ethiopia was and is particularly the Italian victory

For instance handsome Anthony Eden and other rising and falling statesmen have been embarrassed acutely by the failure of their peculiar version of collective security Some heads may fall

The League of Nations at Geneva is in a dither over the latest and greatest threat to its particular existence as the instrument of collective security Geneva may become a deserted city

Germany having seen Italy defy the world without disaster may follow the example Great Britain has awakened with a start to a new day and a new order of things in Europe Foreign policies are being made over by the dozen

In fact wherever one looks he finds complications caused by the late African trouble Experts are working day and night to analyze clearly what should be expected There's no time for anything else

Relatively no thought is being given to Utopia any more One might think the war had been fought somewhere else Apparently the Ethiopians are about to slip back into the obscurity from which they emerged They have had their day in the sun

Before they disappear a word should be said about untrained and unequipped men who faced one of the best equipped armies which ever carried civilization into the jungle Undoubtedly the Ethiopians were whipped long before they ceased to offer effective resistance to the invaders Yet they fought gamely as long as they could

Why did they resist at all? Italy plans to bring them the secret of a More Abundant Life to abolish slavery and to give them a chance to participate in a larger scheme of living

Unfortunately Ethiopia being a big brother Italy is an invader Ethiopians fought for their freedom and if a good guess some of them will continue to fight for a good many generations

Men do strange things to protect their liberty from the grasping hands of people who are trying to be helpful

Results

Ohio political pivot of special importance in the 1936 national election displayed the following important tendencies in Tuesday's primary

The candidacy of Sen William E Borah for the Republican presidential nomination will be supported by not more than five delegates to the national convention

proof that in this representative state the Idaho congressman has no following of consequence

Approval of as few as a dozen delegates pledged to Sen Borah would have been an important indication of strength in Ohio

Charles A Taft running under auspices of the Republican organization will have Ohio's convention votes until they are given to whichever one of the probable candidates commands the support of this state's Republican leadership

On the Democratic ticket President Roosevelt won the state easily, though Col Henry Breckinridge picked up a fairly large number of votes in the preferential poll—approximately one to every 14 cast for Mr Roosevelt

One fact about the Breckinridge votes is important They represent strong opposition to President Roosevelt and may be claimed therefore as votes which will go against the new deal next November With no personal following in the state and without any effort Col Breckinridge has given Democratic national headquarters tangible evidence of consequential anti Roosevelt feeling in a pivotal state

As expected Gov Martin L Davey had no trouble outdistancing Stephen M Young whose candidacy apparently had at least the moral support of the Roosevelt Democrats in Washington On the Republican ballot Attorney General John Bricker unopposed for the governorship nomination was given an impressive indorsement vote A contest between Mr Bricker and Mr Davey should be of real value in clarifying Ohio's political position before the November election

Cleanup.

There will be no more sensational captures of suspects by the bureau of investigation in the near future When Thomas H Robinson Jr wanted for the kidnaping of Mrs Alice Stoll at Louisville in 1934 was picked up by the G-men at Glendale Cal late Monday night the list of well known public enemy names was folded and filed away for future reference

The bureau of investigation has conducted a successful spring cleanup Alvin Karpis Harry Campbell William Mahan had been swept into its ashcan before Robinson's capture The public has been duly impressed with the power and skill of the American version of Scotland Yard Few opportunities to dramatize the work of the G-men have been overlooked It scarcely could have been coincidence that the four suspects mentioned previously were rounded up within a few days of each other

It would be good for all parties concerned to take a vacation from publicity for awhile All the well known names which have been placed on the public enemy list since the almost forgotten days of Al Capone have been checked off The bureau of investigation has done what the public demanded should be done to prove that lawlessness was not rampant in the United States A certain amount of dramatization was desirable but it seems an excellent time now to be giving thought to the advantages of a less sensational manner of operation

The Right Idea But—

If congress should pass no law affecting the business of the press in any way whatsoever the press becomes ipso facto a thing above and beyond the law

With these words as the meat of his declaration Crampton Harris counsel for the Black lobby investigation committee challenged Publisher Hearst's contention that the committee's scrutiny of telegrams constituted an invasion of freedom of the press To such an assertion history and the Constitution itself can furnish many rebuttals The interesting point of Mr Harris's statement is the expressed fear that the press may become a thing above and beyond the law

If such an outcome were possible most of the press would raise its own voice in alarm If one point should have received more emphasis in the recent outcry against encroachments upon the press it was just that point The press does not want to and does not enjoy privileges flowing from the first and fourth amendments that are not guaranteed to all citizens Instead the press views its own right to freedom as a public responsibility which is one of the surest guarantees that all people shall enjoy their constitutional rights and privileges When the press is shackled the people soon find they no longer are free

In defending the indefensible search and seizure tactics of the Black committee Mr Harris intended to uphold the right of the senate to be above the courts Instead he has given the press an opportunity to clarify its own concept of freedom.

Little Love for Tax Bill in Senate

About as Much Sentiment for Measure as There Is for Legislators To Stay in Capital All Summer.

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1936 by The Marion Star

WASHINGTON May 14 There's about as much real sentiment in the United States senate today for the treasury's pet theory of a tax on undistributed surpluses of corporations as there is for staying in session all summer which means very little indeed considering the need of members to get back home to their political campaigns

Were it not for the insistence of the White House the new tax would go the way of the inheritance tax proposal a year ago To save somebody's pride there will however be written into the forthcoming tax bill the so-called "principle of an undistributed surplus tax

Strictly speaking the idea of forcing surpluses into distribution when they are retained in holding companies as a means of avoiding tax has always been embodied in the last decade of tax legislation and today the commissioner of internal revenue under existing law can impose a penalty tax if an unreasonable accumulation of surplus occurs beyond the needs of a business or in any personal holding company which doesn't engage actively in business at all but just clips bond coupons or gathers dividends

* * *

Putting the principle into more definite form by a slightly graduated tax that doesn't raise the question of reasonableness or unreasonableness but simply declares that a percentage of what is retained must be taxed is going to appease the treasury somewhat because once the principle is accepted the rates can be changed next year in line with the Hugh well proposal outlined yesterday in these dispatches

On Capitol Hill there has been a suspicion for some time that the President isn't so keen about the new tax as some of his treasury theorists and it has been significant that Chairman Harrison of the senate finance committee and Majority Leader Robinson have been pretty confident all along that congress would adjourn by June 1 Certainly adjournment at that date would not be possible unless a compromise tax plan is offered

All sorts of compromise plans are being suggested from the Democratic side If a vote were taken in the senate finance committee a combination of Republicans and conservative Democrats would reject the bill passed by the house as well as any substitute which drastically taxes surpluses

The only chance therefore is for some plan that does not introduce the surplus tax too violently in the next year or so and yet permits the treasury to get increased revenues from the corporation taxes the rates on which are going to be raised to perhaps 18 per cent but on a graduated scale permitting less taxes on smaller incomes than on the larger earnings

* * *

The bill that will be passed by the senate will probably not contain any processing taxes no matter how insistent Secretary Wallace of the department of agriculture may be to collect them The political dangers of the processing tax are well recognized now by the Democrats and they are not likely to agree to any revival unless the President makes it an ultimatum The house of representatives is lukewarm on the idea too

This much is certain—only about 14 working days remain of the present session If June 1 is the adjournment date The bill has to be got out of the senate and into conference if it is to be put into real shape at all At present it is a hodge podge of unworkable provisions to say nothing of the doubtful constitutionality of such things as the processing tax The measure will not get to conference before May 23

But the Democratic leaders are supreme ly confident they can work it all out—which means only one thing the new tax bill will not be as drastic as first believed and the treasury will not get the revenue needed to meet its estimates But there never was any serious possibility of getting the budget balanced by the new tax bill anyway And the real pinch in taxation will come after election no matter what the outcome of the presidential contest for the camouflage about the unbalanced budget and the failure to tax cannot be indefinitely maintained

Behind the News

Men and Affairs Under The Washington Spotlight

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON May 14 — A fancy game of diplomatic window dressing is being arranged by European diplomats for the benefit of the man in the street Best dressed scene so far is that disclosing Britannia asking Hitler whether he is going to live up to future treaties he signs.

No one has laughed at it yet and Hitler did not indicate that he considered the question insulting

The reason is everyone knows the answer and the diplomats privately know the purpose Hitler's response will be the same as that of anyone who is asked You're an honest man aren't you

The stock diplomatic answer to such an inquiry would be that Hitler will respect his treaties just as long as other signatories respect the letter and spirit of them He could even promise non aggression in the East under that condition Then when he is ready to attack in the East he can contend that others have violated the spirit of the treaty and his guns will go forward

This is accepted diplomatic practice No diplomat here has any doubt that it will be followed to the letter in the existing situation

The main inside purpose of the British questionnaire was to stall for time while the French government is being reorganized as result of the elections

The Record

If such assured expectations seem to be far fetched consider not only Hitler's wastebasket full of torn treaties but that of Mussolini Hitler asserts that the treaties he tore up were dishonorable shackles imposed on his defeated people but Mussolini could not use that excuse He was on the winning side

In October 1933 the Argentine anti war pact was signed pledging non recognition of territory acquired by force as a definite commitment Italy adhered to the treaty in March 1934 and started sweeping up Ethiopia by force eighteen months later

Italy also signed the Kellogg pact renouncing war and pledging the settlement of all international differences by pacific means She adhered to the covenant of the League of Nations pledging non aggression until a League committee of neutrals was given opportunity to arbitrate She signed the poison gas treaty forever renouncing that barbaric weapon of warfare and yet turned mustard gas on the Ethiopians to defeat them and officially admitted it (Incidentally she used the stock excuse Ethiopian atrocities as the reason for the gas)

The situation is adequately presented by the fact that while the United States and every other nation has signed the poison gas treaty all are experimenting in the use of gases and in defense against them

Waiting

British officialdom is far more excited about Mussolini than its public composure would indicate

What they really think is that the Italian dictator has made "a ghastly mess of world affairs he must be going out of his mind" success has caused his imagination to run wild

Such language is commonplace in American politics but when employed even privately by a British official it reflects top British temperature

Yet the British take the customary long range view of the final outcome As they see it autocratic regimes like Hitler's and Mussolini's are able to move much more quickly than democracies The autocrats can control the people more efficiently but generally succumb to rising masses much sooner than democracies Eventually the growing boldness of autocracies becomes their undoing They expand quickly until they burst

All of which suggests that the British are content to wait on the Italian and German masses rather than employ British battleships

Distraction

The British naval demonstration at Malta is supposed to be just a minor side window show arranged to coincide with the League of Nations meeting in Ethiopia

Confidential

State Secretary Hull promised to furnish the house committee with some additional confidential information showing why he did not send a battleship to Ethiopia

His confidential information concerns the fact that Britain and Italy were on the verge of war and therefore he considered it highly dangerous to send even a canoe into the Mediterranean

Of course no one knew about that except people who could read or hear The newspapers headlined for days that very information which now has become confidential

The explanation is that diplomats often dare not confess officially what is already generally known

TWO MANNERISMS

Older men of Columbus who knew Alfred Kelly in his mature years and were acquainted also with the late Prof Curtis C Howard commented upon a mannerism which the two had in common Both men kept their temper well under control and showed their emphasis and at the same time restrained their anger by a similar movement

Kelly always under these circumstances buttoned his coat to the highest button at the neck then drew in his chin like a turtle and set his head squarely down on his shoulders before speaking in the legislature or elsewhere

The professor usually did the same and in addition thrust his hands deep into his coat pockets

Shadow-Boxing

Congressmen Avoid Long Term Relief Plan

BY BYRON PRICE
Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington

Any blow by blow account of current congressional efforts at relief would show a large percentage of shadow boxing

A few hard ones have been struck out in the main both Democrats and Republicans have attempted only cautious and tentative approaches to a subject both dread and are anxious to get rid of with as little roughness as possible

Almost without exception members recognize that a new appropriation must be voted but that it will be merely a temporary measure postponing for the future the larger problem of a long term policy toward unemployment

The vast majority has come to neither the initiative nor the desire to advance concrete proposals for dealing with the jobless on a permanent basis As for the future to come they seem content to go back on the hope that something will turn up.

Depression Is Over?

The trouble with such an attitude is that Mr Roosevelt pointed out some weeks ago in his Baltimore speech something a number has turned up without even waiting the way to salvation

Industrial activity has made long strides toward recovery and thoughtful economists are agreed that so far as general indices are concerned the depression is over Yet the unemployment figures remain almost stationary The New Deal has disproved one of the cardinal theories of these depression years—that if production could be restored to normal the unemployment problem would evaporate

It is not this serious situation however or the remedy of it that congress is debating It is considering only what must be done the moment to keep people from starving—a pressing matter but true but hardly comparable to the question of what should be done to keep starvation from becoming chronic

Neither party has produced more than sporadic suggestions about the future Instead both sides the past administration's relief of the best method of spending what is to be spent during the next few months of many things which can have little or no bearing on permanent policy

Precedent Says "No"

The truth is that even if either party could agree on a long term program political precedent would be against serious advocacy of it at the outset of a campaign It is one of the bad breaks of national fortune that things should have come to their present state in an election year

Only a few alternatives seem possible One is to acknowledge that large scale unemployment is inevitable at least for years to come and heavy federal appropriations therefore inescapable The other is to work out an allotment of the burden returning most of it to states and municipalities A third is to undertake to spread employment by reviving some of the wage and hour regulations of NRA

The political opposition which would develop against any one of these courses unquestionably would be strong and persistent The taxpayer wants to be told he must go on paying for relief indefinitely the states in general are dead against taking back the responsibility and every mention of NRA or anything resembling it stirs loud echoes of dissent

So congress shadow boxes mostly so great a stir over moments aspects of the case that the real issue is forgotten Some day perhaps when this election is over must face the problem squarely and take the consequences

Secret Dread

The decision of Secretary Morgenthau to appear before the senate finance committee and state his views on the pending tax bill after he had absented himself from Washington while the house ways and means committee was considering the measure occasioned no little comment among politicians in the capital

Yet to those who know the treasury secretary intimately the situation was easy to understand

One of Morgenthau's secret dreads is having to appear before a congressional committee in official capacity Especially is this true as regards the ways and means committee when as controversial a subject as new taxes is involved

Charged by the Constitution with the responsibility of originating all legislation affecting revenue the 18 Democrats and seven Republicans who comprise the committee are among the shrewdest and most hardboiled men in congress A member of the cabinet or anyone else for that matter appears before that group at his own risk

Senators More Dignified

In the senate finance committee it's a bit different. The going is not so rough There's an atmosphere of dignity there which is far different from the rough and tumble debate which prevails in session of the ways and means committee

Aside from Morgenthau's personal aversion to making appearances before congressional committees he probably more than any other member of the President's official family must be the most careful as to what he says As the nation's chief financial officer every word he utters whether it be in a carefully prepared statement or in response to such questions popped at him are immediately seized upon by financial and other interests—some times with devastating effect.

ROBINSON HUSTLED TO PRISON FOR LIFE

By The Associated Press

ATLANTA, Ga., May 14—The last of the kidnapers of the "big money" abduction era of 1933-35 to be captured was hustled under heavy guard today to the steel and stone of Atlanta federal penitentiary.

Thomas H. Robinson Jr., 29, under sentence of life imprisonment, was put aboard a train for Atlanta at Louisville, Ky., late yesterday after he pleaded guilty to a charge of kidnaping Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll in 1934 for $50,000 ransom.

His arraignment and sentence by Federal Judge Elwood Hamilton came within 48 hours of his arrest by federal agents in Glendale, Calif.

Judge Hamilton ordered "that you be confined for the term of your natural life."

TEMPERATURE DROPS FORTY DEGREES HERE

Winter Garb Again Needed as Sudden Break Comes in Balmy Weather.

A 40-degree drop in temperature yesterday featured a sudden break in the May heat wave and caused Marion and Ohio residents to again don vests, topcoats and other cool weather garb.

North America's "icebox", the Mackenzie river basin in Canada, is blamed, or thanked, for the chilly blast. In Marion and central Ohio the results of the draught from "up yonder" were marked. Rains and a brief sunny interlude were followed by a temperature drop from 77 to 37 degrees last night, according to mercury readings of Dr. E. H. Raffensperger, Marion weather observer.

Fair and continued cool tonight followed by warmer weather Friday is the prediction of the United States weather bureau. Yesterday's rainfall here measured eight hundredths of an inch.

It is coincident that a year ago today a drop of 23 degrees was recorded here. The maximum then was 73 degrees and the minimum 50.

Temperature drops from unseasonable summer levels to below spring normal have occurred throughout many of the northern states, The Associated Press daily temperature chart reveals.

In Chicago the temperature sank from a peak of 78 Tuesday to 43 at noon yesterday. Yesterday's maximum and recordings at 8 a. m. today in some of the nation's cities show the widespread effects of the chilly blast. The various temperature drops follow: Boston, 80 to 52; Cincinnati, 78 to 45; Cleveland 74 to 42; Columbus, 76 to 44; Detroit, 74 to 44; El Paso, Tex., 88 to 58; Los Angeles, 80 to 62; New York City, 76 to 50; Portland, Ore., 80 to 56; Washington, D. C., 86 to 50.

It will be noted that the temperature tumble here was greater than in any of the cities mentioned.

FLAT CORPORATE TAX PROPOSAL STUDIED

Treasury Schedule Also Includes Graduated Levy on Undistributed Profit.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 14 — The senate finance committee, apparently bent on wide revision of the house tax bill, today received treasury schedules through which $623,000,000 could be raised by imposing a flat tax on corporate income with a graduated levy superimposed on the basis of undistributed profits.

Chairman Harrison, Democrat of Mississippi, after a two-hour closed session in which Secretary Morgenthau again was questioned, told reporters:

"We are getting to the place where the committee can pass on matters of policy."

Harrison has suggested a plan by which corporations would be taxed 15 per cent on net income, with graduated rates ranging up to 45 per cent on income, in excess of 30 per cent of the total withheld from distribution to stockholders.

He declined to say whether treasury experts had said his particular formula would raise the $23,000,000 of additional permanent revenue.

The bill as passed by the house provided merely for a graduated tax on corporations, based on percentages of income withheld from distribution. The top rate would be 42½ per cent.

FEW CHANGES MADE IN VOTE TABULATION HERE

Official Count of Returns To Start at Election Board Headquarters Immediately.

County election officials this morning finished totaling the unofficial tabulation of Tuesday's primary vote and prepared to wind up the official count later this week.

Pleas for harmony came from both sides of the fence as soon as the trend was definite.

Republican State Chairman Ed D. Schorr, leader of the regular organization, said he hoped "any animosities" which the primary might have engendered "may now be forgotten in the interest of party success in November."

Rep. Young said in Washington after his defeat by Davey:

"Now with the primary contest behind us, all Democrats and independent voters will join together to present a united front and carry Ohio for President Roosevelt and for the entire Democratic state ticket from Gov. Davey down the line."

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing.

If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smart and burn, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait for serious trouble. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills—which have been used successfully for over 40 years by millions of people. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills.

M. E. WOMEN HOLD BANQUET

National Missionary Officer Heard by 175 Attending Mother-Daughter Event.

One of the most colorful events of interest to women of Epworth M. E church was the mother-daughter banquet sponsored by the Woman's Home Missionary society in honor of the Senior High School and Junior Queen Esther societies Tuesday night at the church.

The speaker was Mrs Dan B. Brummitt of Kansas City, Mo., national vice president of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church, an outstanding figure in women's activities of the denomination.

Large baskets filled with flowers transformed the dining room into a bower of purple and gold and at the table where covers were placed for 175 hostesses and guests, the decorations were bouquets of lilacs and lilies of the valley and tall yellow tapers. Places were marked with small yellow candles in purple and gold holders which were later used by the mothers and daughters in a candle-lighting ceremony. Programs in purple and gold covers served as place cards.

Mrs. C. J. Bever was in charge of the program, which opened with a vocal duet, "A Daily Prayer," by Mrs. Lydia Guthrie and Mrs. Eve Hunter. Mrs. F. A. Boyer, president of the auxiliary extended greetings and the program theme was "Look Together." A vocal number by the Harmonettes quartet, was followed by a summary of Home Missions "In the Promise and Its Fulfillment," by Mrs. Wylie Messenger, Mrs. Rex Robinson, Mrs. Charles Aikan, Mrs. Edson Bush, Mrs. Ben Jacoby and Mrs. T. S. Cathers.

Mrs. Bever presented Mrs. Brummitt, who congratulated the Queen Esther groups whose members throughout the country are observing the golden jubilee of their organization, and spoke informally on her topic, "Looking Together." Mrs. Brummitt was instrumental in working out the nationwide theme, "Looking Together," and expressed her pleasure at seeing the program unfold as she visits the various Women's Missionary groups in the country.

Mrs. Cleon Williams, representing the spirit of love, assisted by Misses Elinor Epley, Helen French, Jean Burns, Betty Strayer and Jean Williams, were leaders in a candlelighting ceremony in which the assembly took part. Music by the Harmonettes and Mrs. Guthrie and Mrs. Hunter completed the program.

Mrs. Brummitt came to Marion from Columbus, where she is attending the general conference of the Methodist church. Arrangements were in charge of Mrs. C. J. Bever.

PERJURY REPORTED IN MORROW VOTING

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, May 14—One Morrow county voter who was challenged at the polls at the primary Tuesday may be charged with perjury, it was reported today. The board of elections is investigating the switch of the voter from the Democratic to the Republican party.

Warnings were issued before the primaries that election officials would not and could not legally permit a voter to call for a ballot of the party opposite to that with which he had been affiliated.

The case now under investigation is that of a Cardington resident who called for a Republican ballot and after being challenged, signed an affidavit that he had voted for a majority of Republican candidates in the last election.

Before leaving the booth, members of the Morrow county board of elections said, he said he had never voted for anyone but a Democrat before. The alleged statement was made in the presence of three witnesses. The case may be referred to the grand jury.

TUGWELL'S ACCOUNT OF RELIEF REQUESTED

Resettlement Chief Called To Testify Before Legislators Considering New Bill.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 14 — The struggle centering about the proposed $1,425,000,000 relief appropriation became a three-cornered one today as Rexford G. Tugwell was invited to Capitol Hill to testify about future financing of his resettlement administration.

A bloc of legislators backing Tugwell's agency carried on a drive to induce a senate appropriations subcommittee now considering the relief bill, to make specific provisions for funds for R.A. Otherwise, they contended, its money would run out July 1.

President Roosevelt and Harry L. Hopkins, head of WPA, have favored turning virtually all of the $1,425,000,000 over to Hopkins to handle.

Sen. Hayden, Democrat of Arizona, already has offered an amendment to expand the $2,364,000,000 deficiency bill which includes the relief fund, to provide $709,000,000 for the public works administration, headed by Secretary Ickes.

Ickes, like Tugwell, was to be heard today by the senate subcommittee, which is headed by Chairman Adams, Democrat of Colorado.

Demands on behalf of the resettlement agency came late yesterday from a bloc of eight senators. Acting as a spokesman, Sen. Wheeler, Democrat of Montana, told Adams that his group wanted "you fellows to see that the work of the resettlement administration is carried on."

PLANS COMPLETED FOR AWARD TONIGHT

Presentation of Plaque To Be Made by Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Arrangements have been completed for the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce presentation of a plaque tonight to a Marion citizen for his outstanding community service during 1935.

The citizen selected will not learn of the honor until the presentation banquet at Hotel Marion at 6:30 p. m. James Lytle, a member of the Junior Chamber has been named toastmaster for the occasion. The identity of the speaker who will make the award has not been revealed. Brief dinner talks will be given by Mayor F. C. Smith, Dr. P. Mann and Gene Hill. The latter two were recipients of the award in 1934 and 1935.

Tribute also will be paid a member of the Junior Chamber for leadership and participation in young men's activities. The award will be in the form of a national Junior Chamber of Commerce distinguished service problem. Clarence Hart received the award last year.

ASK DAD, HE KNOWS
—that the greatest comedian of all time is CHARLIE CHAPLIN.
—that the youngsters of today haven't had a chance to laugh at Chaplin because of infrequent screen appearances.
—that a Chaplin comedy is a show for the whole family.
ASK DAD, HE'LL GO

When you see him caught in the whirlpool of modern life... dwarfed by giant machines... clinging to a beautiful but homeless waif... you'll realize that only Chaplin could produce so magnificent a comedy, so poignant a story!

Carliss-Rose Ceremony Read At St. Mary Church Today

MISS MAYETTE CARLISS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carliss of Hotel Harding, became the bride of Howard C. Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Rose of Oil City, Pa., in a ceremony read this morning at 8 o'clock in St. Mary Catholic church. The single ring service was read by the pastor, Rev. William J. Spickerman who also was the celebrant of the low nuptial mass.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and her only attendant was Mrs. Ernestine Wiedemann. Robert Jackson of Oil City, Pa., was Mr. Rose's best man.

Miss Carliss chose for her wedding a navy blue traveling suit with white accessories and red flowers were a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Wiedemann's costume was a navy blue frock with which she wore a short jacket in light tan shade. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of Johanna Hill roses. The bride's mother was costumed in navy blue crepe with accessories in shell pink tones and the bridegroom's mother wore an ensemble in a light blue shade with harmonizing accessories. Both wore shoulder corsages in pastel colors.

Two tall white wicker baskets filled with tulips and lilacs stood at either side of the entrance to the sanctuary and were the only decorations in the church. The wedding marches were played by Miss Frances Scranton.

Following the mass a wedding breakfast was served in the presidential suite at Hotel Harding for 20 guests, including the wedding party and out-of-town guests. Spring flowers carried out an informal decorative effect for the breakfast.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose will motor through New York state and Canada on their wedding trip and after June 1 will be at home at 401 Mitchell avenue in Oil City, Pa.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Rose are graduates of Bucknell university. The bride is a member of Kappa Delta sorority and Mr. Rose is affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity.

Guests from out of the city included Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson and Miss Betty Rose of Oil City, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mechling, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Saup and Miss Elizabeth Saup of Zanesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Carliss entertained at dinner last evening at Hotel Harding for the out-of-town guests.

Planting of Tree To Open Fine Arts Program Tuesday

THE planting of trees at the Harding Memorial, a new project of the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs, will open the fine arts day program Tuesday. The occasion, will bring to a close the 1935-36 activities of the federation and a program will be presented the occasion at Hotel Harding.

Two trees, seven or eight in number, will be planted in the plot of ground turned over to the federation by the Memorial association, to be beautified through the planting of trees. One tree, purchased by the federation, will honor the president of the organization, and will establish a custom to be followed each year. Several other trees purchased through contributions made by the clubs, will be dedicated as a whole to the past presidents of the federation, and a number purchased by individual clubs will honor some member of the club or person designated by the club members. A ceremony has been arranged for the dedication which will be held at 1:30 o'clock.

In keeping with the custom of former years all clubs are asked to contribute to the fine arts setting by having on display baskets of flowers or flower arrangements. These should be at the hotel not later than 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, the committee announced.

In addition to the program which will include the awarding of the annual literary contest honors, there will be an exhibit of de Medici prints, sponsored by the Art club, and a musical program, and a social feature of the day will be the dinner, served at 6:15 o'clock.

Reservations for the dinner are to be made with Mrs. J. C. Ackerman, Mrs. Charles A. Klunk or Miss Ann Mereness, not later than Monday noon.

The club members are asked to attend the entire session, beginning with the tree planting and through the dinner, by the committee, headed by Miss Mereness, Mrs. E. H. Morgan, Mrs. Everett Grigsby and Mrs. Victor E. Dombaugh.

HOURS ARRANGED FOR HOBBY DISPLAY

Public Urged To View Exhibits; Judging Will Start Friday Morning.

The display of hobbies and handicrafts placed at the Y. M. C. A. by the boys and girls of Marion and vicinity will be open to the public tonight until 9 and on Friday and Saturday from 12 noon to 9 p. m.

No admission will be charged, and the public has been urged to view the displays.

Among the interesting exhibits, one which will not be considered in the awarding of prizes in the various divisions is the display of crudely fashioned instruments by inmates of penal institutions and the weapons used in many of Ohio's famous murders. The collection, which has been shown at the Ohio State fair and in many Ohio cities, is the property of E. C. Fuller, chief of the bureau of identification at the Ohio State Reformatory in Mansfield.

Judging of the displays will start Friday morning and the list of winners of grand prizes and first, second and third places, will be announced for publication Saturday or Monday.

The exhibit is sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. in cooperation with the Marion Hobby club, the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs and the public and parochial schools. Ralph E. Carhart is general chairman of arrangements.

Married Comrades

BY ADELE GARRISON

Modes of Philip Veriizen Found Too Puzzling

LILLIAN'S FACE said a dozen things as Dicky said that Philip Veriizen was "sure spending money" on the mysterious apartment he had fitted up in New York, and that "so far as Mabel reported a single peep about why he's doing it."

"Perhaps he's going to give Noel and Mary a honeymoon," she said.

Her husband slapped his knee with a powerful hand.

"That's what I told the Duke," he said. "But of late I particularly said on that idea for some reason or other."

"It's the most plausible explanation, of course, Dicky," said slowly. "Madge and I agreed on that. But we also agreed that there was something about the scheme that didn't just click with the idea of a honeymoon setting. Just a couple of nuances, but they're strong enough to make me skeptical of Philip in the role of a bridegroom."

Noel Doesn't Know

"There's one thing certain," Harry Underwood said. "We're stymied as far as getting any information about old Phil's plans—matrimonial or otherwise—is concerned. We can guess all around the clock but we won't get any answers. And judging from Noel's general demeanor and line of conversation, he doesn't know any answers either. His old man sure has him jumping through hoops and nursing fences."

"Poor Noel!" I said with the sympathy which we all feel for the sensitive, high-minded son of Philip Veriizen, so bedeviled by his temperamental father's vagaries.

"Poor Noel, indeed—and poor Mary!" Lillian amended. "But," she added quickly, "if I grasp the situation, there isn't a thing any of us can do just now either to ease things off for Noel and Mary or to find out what Jack Leslie wrote to Philip Veriizen, Esquire."

"And with Phil on his yacht, and Noel ready to depart for it, the proposition of finding out what old Phil is up to looks pretty hopeless. Unless, of course," she finished with a grin, "we decide to charter another boat and trail Phil."

"You've not only grasped the situation, you've impaled it," Dicky told her. "And we'll lay the proposition of the yacht on the table for future consideration."

"Better file the whole matter of the Veriizens, pere et fils together with that of Jack Leslie, for a less hectic season," Lillian said. "We have real news for you."

"Aha!" her husband burlesqued, but I noticed that both he and Dicky straightened themselves and fixed attentive eyes upon us. "The plot appears to be thickening."

Tells of Junkman.

"It's like the well-known molasses in January," Lillian retorted. "But Madge will spoon you the spinach. She's the party of the first part."

I wrinkled my nose at her in protest, but she shook her head and I stirred silently into the tale of the junkman who had procured for the code message from my father's twin brother. When I had finished reciting the code message, which I had committed to memory, the two men exchanged significant glances.

"Two days from now, Dicky commented, "I wonder why the delay. We expected him before this."

"Probably a bit of extra precaution," Harry Underwood countered easily—almost too easily my terrified nerves whispered. Was it possible that something had gone wrong?

I tried to keep my face composed, for I did not want Lillian or Harry to guess that I meant to do anything save "sit tight" during the breathing space which my uncle's message had afforded us. But at my first opportunity of evading their eyes I flashed a signal of appeal to Dicky, which in our own private code, "I must speak to you alone."

I did not expect any immediate answer—one is too canny to be serious—but after our colloquy had gone on for several minutes, he looked over at me inquiringly.

"Are you pretty well fagged, old dear?"

"No," I responded instantly. "Why?"

"I didn't know but you could find time to help me with some drawings that have to be checked. I've been neglecting the things."

TEMPERATURE DROPS FORTY DEGREES HERE

Winter Garb Again Needed as Sudden Break Comes in Balmy Weather.

A 40-degree drop in temperature yesterday featured a sudden break in the May heat wave and caused Marion and Ohio residents to again don vests, topcoats and other cool weather garb.

North America's "icebox", the Mackenzie river basin in Canada, is blamed, or thanked, for the chilly blast. In Marion and central Ohio the results of the draught from "up yonder" were marked. Rains and a brief sunny interlude were followed by a temperature drop from 77 to 37 degrees last night, according to mercury readings of Dr. E. H. Raffensperger, Marion weather observer.

Fair and continued cool tonight followed by warmer weather Friday is the prediction of the United States weather bureau. Yesterday's rainfall here measured eight hundredths of an inch.

It is coincident that a year ago today a drop of 23 degrees was recorded here. The maximum then was 75 degrees and the minimum 50.

Temperature drops from unseasonable summer levels to below spring normal have occurred throughout many of the northern states, The Associated Press daily temperature chart reveals.

In Chicago the temperature sank from a peak of 78 Tuesday to 48 at noon yesterday. Yesterday's maximum and recordings at 8 a. m. today in some of the nation's cities show the widespread effects of the chilly blast. The various temperature drops follow: Boston, 80 to 52; Cincinnati, 78 to 46; Cleveland 74 to 42; Columbus, 76 to 44; Detroit, 74 to 44; El Paso, Tex., 88 to 55; Los Angeles, 80 to 62; New York City, 76 to 50; Portland, Ore., 80 to 56; Washington, D. C., 85 to 50.

It will be noted that the temperature tumble here was greater than in any of the cities mentioned.

FLAT CORPORATE TAX PROPOSAL STUDIED

Treasury Schedule Also Includes Graduated Levy on Undistributed Profit.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 14 — The senate finance committee, apparently bent on wide revision of the house tax bill, today received treasury schedules through which $623,000,000 could be raised by imposing a flat tax on corporate income with a graduated levy superimposed on the basis of undistributed profits.

Chairman Harrison, Democrat of Mississippi, after a two-hour closed session in which Secretary Morgenthau again was questioned, told reporters:

"We are getting to the place where the committee can pass on matters of policy."

Harrison has suggested a plan by which corporations would be taxed 15 per cent on net income, with graduated rates ranging up to 45 per cent on income, in excess of 30 per cent of the total withheld from distribution to stockholders.

He declined to say whether treasury experts had said his particular formula would raise the $23,000,000 of additional permanent revenue.

The bill as passed by the house provided merely for a graduated tax on corporations, based on percentages of income withheld from distribution. The top rate would be 42½ per cent.

SCENE OF RIOTOUS ESCAPE AT OKLAHOMA PRISON TODAY

This is a general view of the brickyard at the McAlester, Okla., penitentiary where 24 desperate convicts started a riot which led to their escape, the slaying of the brickyard foreman, the wounding of another guard and the holding of a third as hostage. Later six of the desperadoes were recaptured, but not until C. D. Powell, 36, foreman, had been forced into an automobile, shot through the head and his body tossed out on a street near the McAlester business section. (Associated Press Photo)

Plead for Harmony

Pleas for harmony came from both sides of the fence as soon as the trend was definite.

Republican State Chairman Ed D. Schorr, leader of the regular organization, said he hoped "any animosities" which the primary might have engendered "may now be forgotten in the interest of party success in November."

Rep. Young said in Washington after his defeat by Davey:

"Now with the primary contest behind us, all Democrats and independent voters will join together to present a united front and carry Ohio for President Roosevelt and for the entire Democratic state ticket from Gov. Davey down the line."

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing.

If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smart and burn, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait for serious trouble. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills—which have been used successfully for over 40 years by millions of people. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills.

THREAT TO MURDERED UNION CHIEF STUDIED

Agent of Wagon Drivers' Organization Slain at Home in Cleveland.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O., May 14—Detectives investigated the origin today of a warning letter received several days ago by Arthur Whitelock 33, business agent of the Ice, Coal and Water Wagon Drivers union who was shot and killed last night as he sat in the living room of his home.

Charles O. Nevel, acting detective inspector, refused to reveal the entire contents of the letter, but it was known that it warned the union official that somebody was "out to get" him.

The letter was found in a safe at headquarters of the union after Whitelock's associates had told police about it.

Inspector Nevel and Sergt. James Hogan, in charge of the police homicide squad, said they had found a witness who could identify the killers.

Whitelock had kissed his daughter, Doris, 4, good night only a few minutes before he was shot. He was sitting in an arm chair listening to the radio when the shotgun charge came through a front window, striking him on the upper left side of the body.

The killer apparently stood on the front porch. Police said a shotgun shell was found there.

Other union officials in Cleveland were unable to offer a motive for the killing of Whitelock.

In June 1934, Whitelock was sentenced to a 90-day term in the workhouse and ordered to pay the costs of two convictions for assault and battery and malicious destruction of property. Police charged he ripped over a furniture truck and beat the driver.

Dirk Joris is having a time in Hope, shadowed by the idea of finding out what mysterious errand took her out of the old Joris estate early one morning. Robert Joris married Hope, knowing nothing at all about her, and what little Dirk knows does not help clear the mystery. Somewhat to his astonishment, Dirk finds himself thinking about her often.

• • •

On the twenty fifth it seemed so ... that Rupert would be at ... that Dirk exchanged Hope's ... tickets for a box and invited Isabel ... the end Rupert went with them.

Hope had seemed gayer with ... Dirk since their meeting in the ... hall and at the same time more ... intent on avoiding him The night ... of the rodeo she left him entirely ... to Isabel sitting on Rupert's other hand, keeping Rupert's substantial bulk between them, so that Dirk could only rarely see her face.

It was natural that she should want to see the rodeo, even in what Dirk felt must be their unsympathetic company. The rodeo was the sort of horse-show to which she had been bred.

Dirk watched the broncho riding, wondering why he had never thought to visit a rodeo before Isabel watched too, apparently less bored than usual, wearing a dark sports-suit, and a boyish hat.

She would be bored before it was over, but now she was interested even in the cowboys who, not taking part in the events, squatted on their heels about the arena, looking on Sometimes when a cow or a bucking horse became too general in its activities they leaped aside, climbing the chutes or the rails of the boxes.

Ruppert asked Hope why they were there, and passed her reply along to Dirk and Isabel

"They're studying the horses, watching to see if a horse takes a long neck, or a short one"

It was during the steer-wrestling that a vast scramble occurred in the arena, and a cowboy leaped neatly into their box.

"That's the craziest steer we've got," he apologized, as Rupert rose to make room for him. "Some devil"

Dirk had been watching the steer, and the cowboy who mounted on a pinto pony, was flying after him Even as they looked, the boy left his horse, leaped to the steers back, grabbing him below the horns The steer whirled and twisted, lay suddenly on the ground, all four feet extended ...

The cowboy in the box heaved a sigh and smiled.

"Lucky Dan's in the money, all right," he said. "I thought he was crazy, trying to wrestle Lucifer. None of us thought a New York kid could do it. Lucier's killed two men. Westerners"

Rupert was interested

"Lucky Dan from New York? he asked

"So they say" answered the cowboy. "I sure don't believe it now"

"Why not?" inquired Isabel The visiting cowboy was tall with keen gray eyes and skin as brown as a mango "We have ranches here," she added

He appeared to observe her for the first time His gray eyes held admiration, and repressed amusement.

"Yes, Ma'am," he agreed politely, and leaped over the rail.

Rupert sat down again, but not before Dirk had seen Hope, leaning forward in her chair, staring into the arena with white face and fixed eyes. She was watching the New York cowboy, listening to the megaphoned voice of a judge proclaiming Lucky Dan's triumph over Lucifer.

There was an immense sound of applause, and Lucky Dan took off his sombrero, disclosing a grave young face, and a blond head. He bowed, never smiling, scarcely seeming to care

Dirk watched him leave the arena. Something in his walk, something in the way he had taken off the sombrero—

Where, Dirk asked himself had he seen Lucky Dan before? Where witnessed those automatic gestures, that slightly bowed gait? Did he imagine he held a memory of them because the boy was so plainly Hope's reason for being here?. ..

Next day Dirk inquired at the rodeo-offices about Lucky Dan. He had come, indeed, from a ranch upstate, had only lately entered the contests, under the management of his father, a bellicose individual named Jones.

"As for the boy," said Dirk's informant, an arena director in a ten-gallon hat, "as for that kid, he's got the face of an angel, Golden hair and blue eyes"

"What do I know about him? That's enough, ain't it? Neither him nor his dad mixes much with the crowd, so it's not easy to know 'em. Nobody likes Jones. He bullies the kid, but the kid don't seem to mind

Dirk asked when Lucky Dan would ride again.

"Can't tell you that, at least not in advance. He got in late, and he has to wait every time till somebody drops out Of course we knew ahead when he was goin' to wrestle Lucifer. That's how he got in, offerin' to bulldog old Lucifer"

And that was how Hope had known that she wanted to see the rodeo on the twenty-fifth Dirk wondered if she would ask to go again

That night he directed the detectives to look up the history of the Jones, father and son That history, he had no doubt was closely woven with the riddle of hope.

Hope is a success, tomorrow, at a different sort of party.

Boston Bees Trim Pirates; Reds Lose to Phillies

BOSTONIANS MOVE INTO FIFTH PLACE IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

Yankees Defeat Browns; Tool Six Runs Detroit Tigers 3 to 1.

One notes signs of the other symptoms of the major league baseball season, which include the miserable scorings of last year's World Series rivals the Tigers and Cubs, the unnatural performances of the Giants and the complete failure of the Browns during extra innings and the showing of the Boston Bees.

A baseball fan visited a year ago, the resurgent Bees have been showing signs of rejuvenation that can't be explained entirely by the new players they have acquired. By taking an exciting 10-inning decision from the Pirates yesterday, 4 to 3, the Bees moved into fifth place in the National League ahead of Cincinnati's Reds, who took a 5 to 1 pounding from the Phillies.

Yanks Are Win

More orthodox performances were seen in the American League where the Yankees and Red Sox, reaching first and second, won the only other games that ended even.

The Yanks trounced the Browns 4-1 behind Monte Pearson's fling ing while the Red Hose defeated the Tigers 3 to 1.

Not only have the Bees won 11 out of 20 games thus far to place just a game behind the Cubs, but their two ties and the overtime triumph yesterday indicate they have what it takes to close strongly in the campaign. The first Boston runs came in the fourth, when Al Lopez smacked a homer with one on and gave the Bees a one-run lead. The Bees tied it up in the next inning, then Wally Hoyt and Danny MacFayden hooked up in a relief hurling duel that wasn't decided until Hoyt gave up his first hit in the tenth.

"Deacon Danny" worked his rival for a pass to start the extra frame and took second on Bill Urbanski's sacrifice. At the crucial moment Hanley Jordan drove a hot single through the infield to end the ball game.

Phils Hit Effectively

The Phils, who also have shown the ability to do some real damage to the Reds, hit more effectively than the Reds although each team got 14 blows. Lee Handley and Ernie Lombardi of the Reds and Earl Grace of the Phils hit homers and six triples and five doubles were tossed in. The payoff, however, came in the seventh inning when relief hurler Syl Johnson sent a pair of runs to climax a three-run winning rally.

Monte Pearson had little trouble subduing the Browns with six hits and an equal number of strikeouts to gain his fourth victory for the Yanks.

The world champion Tigers could get only six blows off Rube Walberg and Fritz Ostermueller, Boston lefties. Seven walks off Walberg made trouble until Bill Weaver belted his first home of the season with two aboard to bring in all the Boston runs. Schoolboy Rowe who retired after six innings because of a sore arm, was the victim of the fourth-inning wallop.

A possible explanation for some of the Giants troubles cropped up when the New Yorkers took advantage of enforced idleness to complete a deal sending Smoky Joe Martin, relief third baseman, to Baltimore along with a bundle of cash in exchange for Eddie Mayo.

PLAY TONIGHT

The Rostone Athletic club and the Saratoga Grill softball teams will meet tonight on the P. A. C. diamond at Patton and Patterson street. The game is scheduled for 6 o'clock.

CINCINNATI'S SLUGGING CATCHER

I DON'T KNOW WHERE IT'S GOING MYSELF
HE WAS A DEAD LEFT FIELD HITTER UNTIL BOB O'FARRELL TOOK HIM IN HAND AND TAUGHT HIM TO HIT IN ALL DIRECTIONS
ERNIE LOMBARDI - THE CINCINNATI REDS' SLUGGING CATCHER
THE VETERAN HAS HIS EYE ON THE NATIONAL LEAGUE BATTING CROWN
THE FIRST DOZEN GAMES SHOWED HIM HITTING WELL OVER THE 400 MARK
Dan'

Popping off in baseball has a way of kicking back sooner or later. Bill Terry found this out a couple of years ago, when he more or less innocently inquired whether the Brooklyn Dodgers were still in the National league. On the last day of the season he heard the answer in no uncertain terms when the Dodgers knocked his club right out of the World Series and into second place.

The Cincinnati Reds seem to feel the same way about Charlie Grimm, manager of the Cubs, as the Dodgers felt about Terry two years ago. It all began this spring when the Cubs visited Tampa to play an exhibition game with the Reds.

The manager of the National league champions took time out to answer a few questions for reporters. They wanted to know what Grimm thought of the Cubs' chances of repeating. In reply, Charlie admitted that his club might have some trouble with the Cardinals and the Giants, but asserted that the Cubs would "take the Cincinnati Reds in their regular stride."

When the Reds and their manager, Charlie Dressen, saw the published interview they saw "red." It was the beginning of a beautiful feud....one that flamed into a roaring fire when the Reds invaded Chicago for their 3-game series with the Cubs. They took their spite out on the Cubs' pitchers and annexed the first two games. The Reds lost the third game but what of it? The series was in the bag. What's more, they aren't likely to let Charlie Grimm forget that slight—and the best way they know of reminding him of it is to trip the Cubs whenever they get the chance. And don't think for a moment that they won't be in there trying to make Grimm eat his own words.

Ernie Lombardi, the Reds' big catcher, has been wielding a mean bat since he was cut down while blocking a Cardinal runner at the plate. Up to the time he was carried off the field he had collected 13 hits in 27 times at bat for an average of .481, and the layoff hasn't dimmed his batting eye.

Lombardi has always been a powerful hitter and now that he appears to have mastered the art of hitting to all fields, has an excellent chance of challenging the batting leaders.

When Bob O'Farrell was with the Reds he took Lombardi in hand and tried to teach the catcher how to hit to all fields. Ernie had long been known as a dead left field hitter.

The sight of Lombardi stepping up to the plate used to be a signal for all the infielders and outfielders to shift to the left. There was no need of protecting the right side of the field.

O'Farrell went to work on him. Bob showed Ernie how to drive a ball to right field by pushing the hands slightly ahead of the bat. It wasn't easy at first, but constant practice began to bring results. Before long Lombardi was dumping hits into right, catching the outfielders flat-footed. Now they play for him to their regular positions, for he hits equally as well in all directions.

PFLEGER HITS TWO HOMERS IN 1 INNING; RED BIRDS VICTORS

Columbus Shuts Out Kansas City Blues in Night Game, 8 to 0.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, May 14—Walt Pfleger, Minneapolis reserve infielder, put his name in the American Association's record book today, along with swell prospects for a regular job with the Millers.

Playing second base in place of Andy Cohen, yesterday, Pfleger became the fourth player in 34 years of association playing to clout not two home runs in one inning as the Millers blistered Toledo, 11 to 6. He turned on his lone opening in a mighty eventful eighth inning during which Donie Bush's mates scored nine runs, at the expense of Oliver Thomas. Mod Hess relief pitcher. Arvo Mellaki gave the Reds only five singles.

The other members of the two-homer-hitting club are Buddy Hassett and Max Culley, former Millers, and Pat Crawford, new secretary of the Columbus club, who did it while playing with the Red Birds.

Louisville nudged out St. Paul, 11 to 5, clouting a homer and a double by Ed Brandt to lead the leaguemates. St. Paul fanned three pitchers during rallying in a string of 14 consecutive victories. The score was 11 to 5.

Lee Stine, Milwaukee's young southpaw, handcuffed the Louisville batters, passing but seven to win his 7th game by the St. Louis Cardinals-held Kansas City to seven scattered hits in a night game at the Red Birds scored an 8 to 3 decision.

Joe Louis Starts Training for Schmeling On 22nd Birthda

By The Associated Press

LAKEWOOD, N. J., May 14—After a morning temperature that apparently brought more pleasure to the golfers than to the Brown Bomber, Joe Louis is about ready to begin the serious work of preparing to meet Max Schmeling in June.

Joe's twenty-second birthday celebrated with the opening of his training camp here yesterday and it was rather a hectic affair, what with everyone but Joe. He was kept busy posing for pictures, sparring a round for the newsreels, accepting congratulations and in general doing as directed.

Among those present at various times during the afternoon were James J. Braddock, the heavyweight champion; Tony Canzoneri, ruler of the lightweights; the Philadelphia veteran, Tommy Loughran, and a host of others connected in one way or another with boxing. Gov. Harold Hoffman arrived a little late to welcome the distinguished g

Joe was measured and weighed, finding that he has grown a inch to four inches since he fought Max Baer last summer. He scaled about and expects to get down to for the Schmeling fight, weighed 198 for Baer.

Commercial Loop Games To Set Twilight Softball Season into Full Swing

Eight Teams Ready for First League Encounters Tonight; Defending Champs Playing Under New Title This Year.

...t softball season ... full swing tonight ... of the Commer... ... last of three twi... ...get in action, play ... games.

... twilight leagues ... openers earlier this ... school league No. 1 ... round of games ... and the No. 2 ... into action Tuesday

Pleasant, the defending champion of the Commercial league, is entered this season under the banner of the Key Town Camp and will use that name throughout the season. The Key Towners will meet the Fairfield team at Lincoln park for their league opener.

Plenty of action is expected at all four city diamonds in tonight's opening games. At Garfield park, two strong pennant contenders, the Prospect Merchants and the Marion Steam Shovel teams, will play. The Lawrence Farm Markets will tangle with the Marion merchants at the M. S. S. Co. diamond. The Huber and Excavator teams will play on the Presidents field.

Softball fans and players are more or less surprised at the treatment received from the weather man. If the Commercial twilight games are played as booked, it will be the first time in recent years that the league openings have not been delayed by adverse weather. The 1935 season openers were postponed several times because of rain and the teams were able to hold only a few practice sessions because of the cold weather.

4 inches FAT off Hips

We know of only one preparation which actually makes human fat disappear. We recommend Korjena because it acts only on fatty tissues, changing the fat into liquid and through daily elimination you get rid of it. Simply take one tiny Korjena Tablet after each meal, eat what you want, but moderately. Results will amaze you. Ugly rolls of fat disappear where most prominent. You lose that bloated distressed feeling, no more puffing at slight exertion. Soon you begin to feel better, look younger, you are more active, delighted in knowing you are getting rid of that ugly fat.

Mrs. Millard Brunges, 709 W. 26th St., Erie, Pa., writes: "Korjena is wonderful for taking that loose fat away. I lost 18 pounds, feel fine, full of pep and now I am happy."

Korjena Tablets are HARMLESS and gentle, yet very effective. If over-weight we urge you to try this marvelous way of reducing. Surprise your friends by becoming more slender. The cost of Korjena is trifling. Ask us today about this remarkable treatment.

THE BOUQUETS ARE FLYING—by Gilbert Bundy

BOUQUETS! "Thanks a million for those grand new chips!" . . . "I've always wanted naptha chips—now my dream has come true." In hundreds of unsolicited letters, women are praising Fels-Naptha Soap CHIPS.

TWO CAN DO IT FASTER! Fels-Naptha Soap CHIPS bring you speedier washdays—because they hold two cleaners. Richer, golden soap and real naptha!

"GOOD OLD SPORT, washing machine! You've perked up like magic since I changed to Fels-Naptha Soap CHIPS. It's Monday and I'm stepping out as fresh as a daisy."

"THEY DO LOOK NEW, but that's because I wash my undies with Fels-Naptha Soap CHIPS." These wonder-chips are milder—full of gentle naptha. Easier on hands, too, because they hold soothing glycerine.

FELS-NAPTHA SOAP CHIPS

THEY'LL AMAZE YOU, TOO! TRY THEM TODAY!
THE FIRST AND ONLY CHIPS TO HOLD REAL NAPTHA!

If you haven't tried Fels-Naptha Soap CHIPS yet—you're missing something wonderful!

The first and only chips to bring you richer, golden soap teamed with real, dirt-loosening naptha!

Because these new chips are curls—crinkly, delicate curls—they dissolve completely. No "soapy" dust to hurt your nose!

The box is different, too. A handy pouring-spout saves waste and spilling.

Ask your grocer for Fels-Naptha Soap CHIPS. Made by the makers of the famous golden bar, Fels Naptha Soap.
